

HOB KNOB HOTEL & SPA

Luxury boutique lodging in the heart of Edgartown on the island of Martha's Vineyard

Overview

Hob Knob Hotel & Spa is a charming upscale getaway on the island of Martha's Vineyard, with exceptional personal service and comfort in a relaxed, elegant setting. The classic Gothic Revival inn, which includes 17 beautifully outfitted guest rooms and suites, has hosted visitors for nearly 100 years, including John F. Kennedy and his family.

Location

Edgartown, a historic whaling village and one of coastal New England's most picturesque towns, is home to the Hob Knob Hotel. It is conveniently situated within a 20-minute drive of the island's two ferry ports, and a 10-minute drive from Martha's Vineyard Airport.

Hotel Amenities & Services

To get you off to a great start each morning, Hob Knob's new farm-fresh breakfast features an enticing array of delicious small plates and provisions from some of the island's best farms and culinary artisans, complimentary for all guests. Relax at day's end over our afternoon tea service with fresh-baked cookies.

Our on-site Rejuvenation Spa allows guests to indulge in restorative body treatments and massages, with a therapeutic steam shower and sauna. A fitness room equipped with up-to-date workout machines adjoins the spa. Cozy, comfortable public gathering spaces include a drawing room with a working fireplace, two dining rooms, a garden room and terrace, and Hob Knob's popular wraparound porch.

Guest rooms feature king-size beds with sumptuous Versai linens; private baths outfitted with natural bath and body products; plush, organic bathrobes; free high-speed WiFi Internet service, flat screen TVs, and phone docking stations; and in-room refrigerators with water and snacks.

Concierge services include Momentum cruiser bikes, gourmet picnic lunches, walking and hiking maps, beach chairs, and umbrellas, as well as reservations for restaurants, specialty rentals, and excursions.

The Hob Knob gift shop offers a selection of T-shirts, sweatshirts, hats, water bottles, and pop-up coolers. The hotel offers on-site parking, as well as easy access to the island's public buses, which serve all six island towns, the ferries, and the beaches.
